

Complaints Handling Policy

Company Name
Traders Trust Limited

Version
2025-01

Review Date
31/01/2025

Traders Trust Limited (hereinafter the "Company") aims to provide superior services to all of its Clients.

The Company has appointed a Compliance Officer to efficiently handle any complaints from the Clients. This is to allow the Company to resolve and apply mandatory measures to avoid any recurring issues.

Definition

The Company classifies a complaint as any objection and/or dissatisfaction that the Client may have with regards to the provision of the services provided by the Company. A complaint form is enclosed at the end of this Policy.

Procedure

The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for handling Client complaints, except in the case where the complaint involves the Compliance Officer, whereby the complaint shall be handled by the Representative Officer.

The Client may register a complaint by completing the complaint form, using any of the following options:

- Email: complaints-sc@ttcm.com
 - Postal Address: CT House, Office 9A, Providence, Mahe, Seychelles
1. When the Compliance Officer receives the Client's complaint then a written acknowledgement will be sent to the Client within 2 business days;
 2. The Company shall provide a final response within 21 business days, however in case we are still not in a position to resolve the issue then the Compliance Officer will notify you in writing stating the reasons for the delay and indicate an estimated time to resolve the issue;
 3. For complicated complaints and when the Company is not in position to resolve the complaint within the initial timeframe of 21 business days, a final response should be provided to the Client within 90 business days the latest from the date the complaint was received;
 4. In the case where the complainant is still not satisfied with the Company's final response, then the complainant can refer his complaint with a copy of the Company's final response to the Financial Services Authority (FSA) in Seychelles for further examination.
 5. Communication with the complainant shall be conducted in English. Should the company provide a translation of its response for the complainant's convenience, the response will be available in both languages and, in the event of any dispute, the English version shall prevail.

The contact details for the Financial Services Authority (FSA) in Seychelles are set out below:
